WINTER HOLIDAY HOMEWORK (2018-2019)
SUBJECT – ENGLISH
CLASS – V

Q1 Read the following passage and answer the questions:

One summer morning on his way to the craft class, Rohan lost a ten rupee coin. He never found the coin, but, he did find something else. He found a small stone that twinkled with a million lights. He showed the stone to his craft teacher. 'This kind of stone is called mica,' Ms. Kapoor told him. 'Is it worth a lot of money – like a diamond?' asked Rohan. ' No. Diamonds are worth much, much more than mica.'

'That's all right,' Rohan said. ' I like to look at it as much as I would look at a diamond.'

'You'll find countless stones that you will like' said Ms Kapoor. That's how Rohan got started on his stone collection. He keeps the stones in empty egg cartons.

- i) Who found a stone while returning from the craft class?
- ii) What resembled a diamond?
- iii) Give an antonym of countless?
- iv) Was Rohan happy with having found the stone instead of a diamond? Give a reason for your answer.

Q2 Read the passage and answer the questions:

Jahan got up unlocked the door, and stepped out quietly. From the head of the stairs, he could hear sounds of cooking from the kitchen. He went down and peeped into the kitchen. The kitchen was empty. The kettle was whistling on the stove. His mother was outside in the kitchen garden, picking some greens. Jahan slipped inside and opened the fridge. It took him a moment to locate butter chiplets. He took one, softly shut the fridge door, and ran up the stairs.

'This will give the skewpie an enough fuel to get us home', said Chu, while chi jumped up and down on her thin legs.
