L-2: VISITING FRANCE

Read the following lines from the lesson named 'Visiting France' and answer the questions that follow.

1) As the taxi took them into Paris, MrRajan started to tell his daughters something about France.'It's about one-fourth the size of India, he said. 'it is among the largest countries in Europe; Russia is the largest.'MrRajan went on to say that, unlike India, France isn't crowded.There is plenty of room for everyone. There are forests and farms in France. So, there is no shortage of good vegetables, fruits, grains, meat and fish to eat.'France has snow-capped mountains called the French Alps. France also has broad rivers and plains where cattle graze on luscious grass. Dairy farming is also popular as the French love cheese; it is a part of their diet. On sunny hillsides, juicy grapes from vineyards are harvested and pressed into wine, for which France is famous.' added MrRajan..
